

ANGEL OF HOPE MEMORIAL BRICK WALKWAY

Tranquil, beautiful, Ben Rau Memorial Garden in Blanchette Park, St. Charles, Missouri is home to the Angel of Hope. The angel's face is that of a child, its arms raised, as a child waiting to be lifted. The word HOPE is inscribed seven times on the statue.

The Angel of Hope is an exact replica of the Christmas Box Angel statue, located in Salt Lake City, Utah, and stands as a symbol of hope for all parents who have experienced the death of a child. The Angel of Hope is based on the angel statue in Richard Paul Evans' best-selling novel, "The Christmas Box."

To honor our children's memories, memorial bricks are being placed around the base of the Angel of Hope statue with separate walkways extending in various directions. The statue and the surrounding area is intended to be a place of peace and healing for all bereaved parents, family members and friends. According to park officials, the Angel is visited every hour of every day.

All bricks are engraved with an individual message for the child. The brick is 4x8 inches with three lines available for engraving fifteen characters per line, including all spacing. All engraving is done in uppercase letters. The orders for the Fall dedication must be received by September 20th, and by March 20th for the Spring dedication. After the dedication ceremony, a Certificate of Recognition will be sent to the family.

A dedication ceremony will be held in the Fall and Spring of each year. The Fall dedication of bricks will take place in late October or early November, prior to the cold and in time for the holiday season. The Spring dedication will take place the last weekend in April or the first weekend in May, before Mother's Day and Father's Day.
